

SILVER is steadily gaining ground. It would not be surprising if the leading powers of Europe would take the initiative within a year to bring about the remonetization of silver. This country is not the only country which has been affected by the depreciation in the price of silver and the folks on the other side of the Atlantic are being pinched harder than we are just now.

Another Catron delegate to the Socorro convention will either have to be selected or C. A. Spiess will have to fork over his proxy, as the latter gentleman has an engagement with the county jailer, over there, that will prevent him from attending the congressional gathering.

Obituary.

Troilus Stephens, one of the old residents of Pinos Altos, died suddenly at his home on Saturday evening, September 8, 1894.

About 6:30 p. m. he had a slight stroke of apoplexy and was taken home where he was attended by Dr. Robinson. About 8 o'clock he had another stroke after which he lived only a few minutes. The news was received here a little after 9 o'clock, and the members of Isaac S. Tiffany lodge No. 13, I. O. O. F., of which he was a member, were notified. The funeral services at Pinos Altos took place at 9 o'clock last Monday morning and were conducted by Rev. Fitch of the Methodist church of this place.

The procession from Pinos Altos was met near the Odd Fellows' cemetery, about a mile from this place, by the Odd Fellows and a large number of citizens in carriages and the interment was under the supervision of the Odd Fellows of Isaac S. Tiffany lodge. Many of the citizens of Pinos Altos came down with the procession and the business houses here were closed as a mark of respect to the memory of one of the prominent citizens of Pinos Altos.

Mr. Stephens was, at the time of his death, 58 years, 10 months and 10 days old, and had been at Pinos Altos for about 20 years. He had been for years a member of the firm of Bell & Stephens of Pinos Altos and was a member of the firm of Neff & Stephens of this place until the firm was dissolved a few years ago. He was largely interested in mining property at Pinos Altos and has left a comfortable fortune to his family. He was a man of untiring energy and good business ability and has done much to develop the resources of the camp in which he was so deeply interested.

Resolved, that this Lodge, in the death of Brother Stephens, who by his steadfast devotion to the true principles of Odd Fellowship had endeared himself to every member of our beloved Order and commended it to the public, has sustained an irreparable loss.
